A Record Breaker

The attendance at the opera house on last Saturday evening was the largest in the history of the opera house. There is no doubt but that Clark's Moving pictures have come to stay. Every film was a feature and run off in a satisfactory steady manner.
The Black Hand elicited much applause
and Sherlock Holmes was a well dramatized comic. Next Saturday Mr.
Clark will again show some excellent films and everybody should be on the lookout for the program. Mr. Clark deserves much credit for the manner in which he arranges his program,
both in pictures and singing. E. R.
Webb was heartily applauded on his singing of the illustrated song "Don't take me home". Everybody should turn out on Saturday and show their appreciation of his efforts to please the public.

leaves a widow and five children.

Lille Notes

The Irish concert was quite a success the large audience, being delighted with the singing etc. We trust the friends here will get up something of the kind monthly as it certainly helps to break the monotony of village life.

Dr. Reid, Supr. of Missions for Alberta, preached here on Sunday morning last. Mr. McNeill preaching in the evening.

Rev. A. T. D. and Rev. J. Sargent, visited Lille on Wednesday.

THE DEBATING CLUB

At the regular meeting of the club on March 22nd, Mr. Steel moved that the meetings of the club should be suspended for the season after the 29th inst. An amendment to continue the meetings as long as the present hearty interest manifested by the public was carried by a large majority.

The evenings program was introduced by a solo by Mr.
Brinn entitled "Make New Friends but keep the Old." This is Mr. Brinn's first appearance among us and we shall be glad to hear him often. The evening's debate was upon the subject: "Resolved that Tariff Reform with Colonial Preference
in Great Britain would be beneficial to the Empire."

Mr. R. Holmes lead the affirmative in his usual convincing and eloquent way. The negative was lead by Mr. Hyslop in a way which left no doubt as to the convictions of the speaker.

Mr. Clark and Mr. Bowcott followed with rebuttal evidence and figures in support of their respective arguments. The former gentleman could not refrain from wandering from his subject to give a little account with Mr. Cameron, left over from the House of Lords debate, with reference to Lord Roberts as a politician. Mr. Holmes closed the debate in a five minute speech.

The Judges Messrs. Macanlay
Keegan and Smith, reported a close verdict but gave their decision in favor of the affirmative on the merit of their eloquence and arrangement of the subject.

Next week's program is in the hands of ladies and promises to be the best of the season

Progressive Whist Party

A very enjoyable evening was spent at Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Graham's residence on Wednesday. A large number of the guests played progressive whist.

PURBRED CATTLE SALE

One of the big features of the Winter Fair to be held at Regina, March 22 to 25 is the annual purebred cattle sale. The number of animals entered in the sale this year is slightly larger than in 1909 and if the names of breeders are any criterion of their quality, the buyers should be satisfied with the stock offered them. The catalogue of the animals entered for the sale is now printed and may be obtained from the secretary F. Hedley Auld, Regina. The sale stock will be judged on the afternoon of the 22nd instead of Friday morning as has been the custom in previous years. This will enable purchasers to examine the stock previous to the sale and as the prize winners will be decorated throughout the fair with the ribbons awarded them, the interest will no doubt be greatly increased.

There will likely be a sharp demand for breeding stock this year and a large attendance at the sale is expected. There is at present a splendid market demand for live stock of all kinds.

Farmers are realizing that the rate of settlement both in town and country is greater than the increase in live stock.

This live stock sale is being a splendid opportunity for farmers to procure good sires and thus build up better herds.

The sale animals may be classified as follows: Short Horn bulls, 40; Hereford bulls, 8; Aberdeen Angus bulls, 1; Holstein bulls, 1; Short Horn females, 4.

Many of these animals are no longer required in the herds
where they have hitherto been kept. The fact of their being offered for sale now should inspire other breeders with a determination to procure one of them if possible. The Cattle Breeders' Association is prepared to purchase animals for persons who may be unable personally to attend the sale, and all such stock will be shipped to any part of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta on payment of uniform charge of $2.50 per head. Full information regarding the sale may be obtained from the secretary.

LETHBRIDGE Y. M. C. A.

E. M. Thompson, associate general secretary of the Y. M.
C. A. for Western Canada, tonight accepted the position of general secretary of the Lethbridge Y. M. C. A. The result of the five day campaign closing on Saturday night was over $55,000. Building operations will commence at once. The building will cost about $50,000.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE, BELLEVUE.

Good Friday, March 25, 8 p.m. in the Methodist church, Bellevue.
The Rev. W. H. Mowat of Lundbreck will speak on "Hymns and their Story" illustrated by lantern slides. Pictures of the events of the Holy week and of the Crucifixion by the great French artist Tissot will also be shown on the screen. A collection for Missions, after payment of expenses, will be taken.

GREAT DEVOTEMENT WORK

The Methodist Church Coal and Coke
Company are now handling a greatly increased output, now that the new steel tipple has been constructed. This steel structure is the most up-to-date and thoroughly equipped tipple in the West. A locomotive engine is to be put in operation on the rail line between the mine and the tipple, instead of the motor engine. This will be a decided advantage to the operators on the railroad line.

The electric fans are already completed at the mine and work on the rock tunnel has commenced.

ed Lethbridge last week, and came back full of praises for that city.

lor for Frank, visited Blairmore on Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Gresham.

spring and are putting in footwalks which now reach to the corner of Tenth avenue west on Victoria.

been spending a few days in Blairmore
this week and left on the eastbound
local on Thursday.

A new foot bridge has been placed over the Lyon Creek which is a great convenience to the people living in the east part of the town.

The new Livery Stable, being erected by J. F. Wilson, will be completed shortly and will be occupied by Fred.
Robertson lately of Pincher Creek.

Mr. Pettier of Blairmore we understand will commence making brick next week, this gentleman also has been busy at Monarch buying another plant.

W. J. Bartlett of the Blairmore Residence was in Coleman on Monday.
He states that he has already secured
6,000 cubic inches of cyanogen gas from Halley's comet.

The government bridge crew are just completing their work on the bridge over the Old Man River east of the town, and expect to leave early next week.

The West Canadian Callers are removing the tipple from Bellevue to Blairmore, the same having been replaced in Bellevue by a steel tipple and as a result of the increased output in Blairmore the temporary tipple has now become useless.

Miss Cagland who has had charge of the Hillebrand school during the past year has been engaged as the Head Teacher here and will assume her new duties immediately after Easter. The old school is being fitted up to accommodate the increased attendance.

Could Have Been Avoided

Mrs. Newell was growing accustomed to power. She enjoyed it, and was irritated when any one presumed to differ from her in opinion. When the sailing party of which she had been a member, landed on the shores of the lake, rainsoaked and frightened. Mrs. Newell was the only one who cared to talk.

"It could all have been avoided if I had said as I told him," she said, between the chattering of her teeth, as the party stood huddled under a small shelter.

"When I said that 'cloud' coming from that corner of the lake I said to him, 'I think you'd better make straight for home, and not spend any more time tacking,' but he paid no more attention than if I hadn't spoken!"

Shiloh's Cure

For those who keep hogs or calves during the summer a small patch of alfalfa will save many pounds of grain. If located near the buildings it can be cut with a scythe, and will form one of the most nutritious green fodders that can be grown, and may be cut three, four or sometimes five times one season.

Blood Poisoning Started from Wound

An accident which threatened worst results until DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT was applied.

No wound or hurt but what has serious possibilities unless antiseptic treatment is applied to prevent blood poisoning.

Lives are often saved by having at hand a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Its antiseptic properties prevent blood poisoning and it is so remarkably healing that cure is soon brought about.

This case will interest you. Mrs. C. Hopkins, St. George, Ont., writes: "I feel like shouting the praises of Dr. Chase's Ointment. One day last year while threshing my son got badly hurt by having the prongs of a fork run into his leg. In a day or two it began to get very sore and blood poisoning set in. We did everything for it but it would heal in one place and break out in another. This kept on for three months when finally we got a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

"In about a week's time we noticed a wonderful change and by using three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is useful in scores of ways in every home. While its great reputation has been made as a cure for eczema and piles there is not a case of itching or irritated skin that it will not cure.

The better you become acquainted with Dr. Chase's Ointment the better you will appreciate its wonderful soothing, healing qualities. Any doctor will tell you of its remarkable merits.

Princess In the Slums

Sometimes the poor, kindness, and unconventional ways of the chief characteristics of Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein, whose water-color sketches have been set in aid of King Edward VII. Hospital at Windsor.

Many instances are recorded of the princess's devotion of both time and money to the poor, and her unflinching labors of love and her complete absence of "side" have gained for her a place in the hearts of the people of the slum districts. In Bermuda, where her good work is chiefly carried on, few of the dwellers are aware of her identity. Princess Victoria tells many good stories of her work in the slums. On the occasion of a visit to a poor house her royal highness found a neglected young mother nursing, fully crying to her crying baby.

"I should be glad if you could," responded the woman, "if you make a noise like a bottle 'ell be off in a jiffy."

His Cue

Supers on the stage are responsible for a great many amusing incidents, and Mr. Gerald Lawrence, the London actor, told a particularly good one recently. He was conducting a rehearsal, and at one point of the play, where there is a general assembly of soldiers and courtiers, one of the supers lagged behind. "Why didn't you get off with the others?" cried Mr. Lawrence. "You saw them all go." The man looked confused for a moment, then said, "Well, sir, it was n't the same cue as I 'ad when I played in this piece before." Now there could only have been one cue, so Mr. Lawrence said, "Really! Well, what cue did you have before?" "Well, sir," came the reply, "it was like this; the gentleman as used to stand behind me used to turn round and say, 'Get off, you idiot!'"

T. B. BRANDON, Editor

Coleman, Friday, March 25, 1910

Rutherford is still objecting to be ostracised.

Coleman is working towards incorporation.

No one works harder for Nelson than its own citizens. Having lost the C. P. R. hotel they are now striving for a Zinc smelter.

Judging from the number of enquiries concerning the road over the bluff, there is a vital interest taken in the matter.

Senator McLaren is enjoying the Easter holidays at McLaren's Mill. The senator states that the change of menu is a welcome one.

Excitement, which was at fever heat at Edmonton has retreated to the tropics. Edmonton any way will never make a summer resort.

The decision of the Dominion to grant $50,000 towards experimenting with the process of manufacturing zinc, is a step that has not been taken too soon. For some time manufacturers in Canada have felt the need of a Canadian smelter so as to be able to cope with their competitors south of the line. Zinc is a natural product of the United States and occurs abundantly in Illinois, Kansas and Missouri. In 1891, 80,000 tons were smelted and used exclusively in the manufacturing plants of the United States. Wales exports annually over 30,000 tons.

The Dominion government has voted money to carry on extensive experiments. But why has it selected Nelson for a place of experimentation? Nelson has a smelter which is constructed only for copper, gold, and silver ores. As a zinc smelter in its present condition, it would be a farce. To partially reconstruct it and equip it even for the experiments, would be folly.

There is no doubt, but that the zinc smelter company would gladly donate the use of their smelter at Frank for this purpose. This smelter was built for smelting zinc. It may be built on a bad principle but as far as experiments are concerned the Frank smelter would be and is the logical smelting manufactory.

The mining and industrial importance of the Crow's Nest Pass is just as important as any other mining and smelting centre. We have the first outlay and foundation at Frank and the government should study the situation.

Opposition Supporting Government

Ottawa, March 16th.—The likelihood of a tariff war with the United States consequent upon the alleged intention of that country to impose the maximum provisions of the Payne law after March 31, as a result of the so called discrimination of the Franco Canadian trade convention has aroused much comment here. The Opposition is disposed to support the government and not grant one iota of concession. It is felt that the United States, by the inspired despatches, is merely putting up a gigantic bluff. But the scream of the Eagle will fall on deaf ears. The consensus of opinion here on both sides is that the United States has everything to lose and nothing to gain by a trade battle with Canada.

COMMONS TO PROROGUE

Ottawa, March 23.—The discussion in the House of commons today ranged from the game of tariff bill, which is now progressing between Messrs. Fielding and Taft, to the expropriation of water power by railway companies. The minister of finance was non-committal concerning matters with Washington, but said only that he hoped soon to be able to take parliament and the country into his confidence.

In spite of the fact that nothing very exciting consumed the attention of the House a good day's work was put in and the order paper was cleared of a host of private bills, while some minor government measures were advanced a stage.

Prologue May 1

It is confidently reported tonight that some arrangement have been arrived at whereby prorogation will not be delayed beyond May 1.

A corroboration of this view was given by the withdrawal for the time being of the contentious St. Lawrence Power Transmission Bill.

It was first order on the paper in private bills which had the right of way but it was not proceeded with and will not be taken up until after Easter holidays. Many express the opinion that the measure will not be opened again this season and that it will make another advent next session in a much modified form.

As to Methuselah's Age.

"METHUSELAH loses his famous record, for his 900 reputed years are whittled down to 733-4."

Thus says the Jewish World in a discussion of Jewish characteristics. There always existed a certain amount of doubt even among believers in the literal truth of the Bible concerning the great age to which the Jewish patriarchs are recorded as having lived. Some of the theories evolved to reduce the Biblical records of this kind to something near the allotted span of man are dealt with in the article.

It is surmised, the Jewish World says, that in the earliest times the month, the period of a moon cycle, was called a year. Thus Adam's 120 years of life calculating a year at 20 1/2 days (the length of a lunar month), works out to 751-2 years. After the month year there came a five month year, the limit of five being derived from the fingers on one hand, it being remembered that primitive people always used finger counting purposes. Then came the twelve month year.

Excuse for this rearrangement is found in the Psalmist's limit of life, of three-score and ten years, and it is maintained that between the times of Noah and David no such extraordinary change could not have taken place as to reduce the life of man by eleven twelfths. On the five month year basis Abraham's 175 years work out at 72 and Isaac's 180 at 74.

Perhaps, too, there intervened a six month year, discovered by Jacob while watching Lavan's flocks. Thus Jacob's 147 years work out at about 73. The twelve month year period began with Egyptians, who saw that a complete period was made up of the two "year" in one of which the days were longer than the nights and in the other the nights longer than the days.

The Christian and Jewish years, concludes the Jewish World, will not forever be separated, "for" it says, "in due course Rosh Hodesh will fall at Christmas time and then catch up the Christmas year. This, however will not happen for 30,000 years, and no doubt that is the reason why nobody worries about it.

EASTERN SLOPE FORESTATION

As the work goes on the rangers will be able to improve their trails, and in cases after their route so that it will be over the points giving them the best view of the surrounding country. In a mountainous country such as this the great essential is to be able to see over the timber and catch the first sign of smoke, not to be in the timber when a fire any distance away cannot be detected until it is beyond control. This patrol, constantly getting a better idea of the country over which it is travelling, keeping a close eye on travellers and systematically securing the co-operation of residents and settlers, will be the best thing in fire insurance that has yet appeared in Western Canada.

After fire protection forestry will consist in securing the best possible use of the land and timber. Before homestead entries are granted for land in the mountain watershed it should first be determined by careful examination by competent authority that such land is not being homesteaded for its timber and that the land is capable of producing crops or supporting stock. The high prices of produce and feed in the mountains (hay $15 to $20 per ton, green feed $9 to $10 per ton, potatoes 90c. per bushel), will always make it necessary to utilize land of an inferior quality, but will never make possible the utilization of anything but the stream bottoms and best benches in any other way than for the growing of timber.

The spirit of a policy which would protect young timber from fire would require that mature timber be cut when needed. The only qualification would be that it be cut under such regulations as would provide for another crop of the most valuable species in the region on the same ground. A detailed study of the growth-habits of the timber is necessary before any judicious regulations can be devised. Lumbering methods commonly practiced must also be taken into consideration; whatever schemes are put forward to provide for the conservative lumbering of the forest must be practical and must impose no hardships on the lumbermen.

INDICTMENTS OF PACKING TRUSTS.

Principal Plants in United States Are Under Investigation at Jersey City.

New York, March 23.—The beef trust of the United States, involving six great packing companies and twenty-one packers, several of them multi-millionaires, socially and industrially prominent, were indicted today by a special jury in Hudson county, N. J., charged with conspiracy in limiting the supply of meat and poultry. The indictment is drawn under the laws of New Jersey, which provide, upon conviction, a maximum penalty of three years in the penitentiary or a $5,000 fine or both. The offense is extraditable, which means that practically all the meat barons of the country must either successfully resist extradition or come to Jersey City for trial. Pierre Garven, the public prosecutor of Hudson county announced to-night that he would notify the defendants of their indictments forthwith, ready to force extradition in each and every case where the individual concerned is not willing to face trial voluntarily. None of the names will be spared.

Medicines that aid nature are always most successful. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by all dealers.

To Secure Utilization of Smelter

Ottawa March 22.—Mr. Templeman's resolution passed to-night providing for the expenditure of $50,000 for investigating the processes in use in the production of zinc for the promotion and manufacture in Canada of zinc and zinc products from native ores.

Some of the processes in use on the continent will be investigated and experiments will be probably made at Nelson, B.C.

A DR. JOHNSON STORY.

Illustrating the Difference Between Assertion and Argument.

Among the anecdotes of Dr. Johnson, one is written not by his biographer, Boswell, but by another contemporary, Dr. John Moore. It is illustrative of Johnson's manner and the importance he gave to argument properly conducted. Dr. Moore said that he was one of a company at Mr. Hoot's. Mention was made that countess were to be heard in a certain case at the bar of the House of Commons. One of the company asked Sir James Johnston if he intended to be present. Johnson answered that he believed he should not, because he said as at the bar of the House of Commons.

"Wherefore," asked Dr. Johnson, "do you pay little regard to their arguments, and in the courts, but it is because," replied Sir James, "they argue for their fee."

"What is it to you, sir," rejoined Dr. Johnson, "that they argue for? You have nothing to do with their motive, but you ought to weigh their argument. Sir, you want to confound argument with assertion. But there is an essential distinction between them. Assertion is like an arrow shot from a longbow—the force with which it strikes depends upon the strength of the arm that draws it. But argument is like an arrow from a crossbow, which has equal force whether shot by a boy or by a giant."

The narrator of this incident said that the company was struck by the epigrams and beauty of this illustration, which certainly was correct. In clear and forceful English and with few of the Latin derivatives with which the good doctor delighted to ornament his sentences.

One of the company said, "That is indeed one of the most just and admirable illustrations that I ever heard."

"Sir," said Dr. Johnson, "the illustration is none of mine. You will find it in Bacon."

Wealth at the Bar.
Just entered upon his seventieth year, Mr. Justice Bigham is one of the most eminent lawyers who have started on their career. Before devoting himself to law he spent five years on the Liverpool Exchange. Educated in Paris and Berlin, he had already acquired a knowledge of languages that was to prove of excellent service to him in the courts. But it was not destined to be all plain sailing for him at the first. "What on earth has induced you to come to the bar?" was the disarming question asked by Lord Russell of Killowen when the future Justice Bigham entered the chambers of the famous barrister as a pupil. It was a question that took the pupils some years to answer. During his first twelve months at the bar the young lawyer earned only seven guineas, though later on, when he had succeeded Lord Russell's Killowen as leader of the Northern Circuit, his income was one of the largest ever earned at the bar. It was few years ago that there came a certain distinguished member of the bench for the opportunity with which he began the judicial day. On one occasion Mr. Bigham, then one of the busiest advocates in the Common Law Courts, waited twenty-five minutes for his case to be called. He cord case to attend to in another court he went out to see how he was doing, and while he was gone the unfortunate judge made his appearance on the bench. "I have waited five minutes for you, Mr. Bigham," exclaimed his impatient audience, "and the best counsel returned. 'My lord,' was the bold reply, 'I waited five times as long.'"

Dickens and Pickwick in Court.
What is perhaps the most interesting piece of furniture in the local courts is the chair of Mr. Hon. F. Fielding Dickens, K.C., whose sixtieth birthday was celebrated a short time ago. It is the fact that which his father, Charles Dickens, wrote nearly all his novels, when the famous novelist named "Martin Chuzzlewit" was a powerful description of the Temple fountain; his son, the distinguished K.C., has prepared many a statement of claim and defence. Mr. Dickens was once criticised because he was his father's son. A witness in the case bore the name of Pickwick, and Mr. Hon. F. Fielding Dickens was chosen to examine him. He happened to be engaged in another court when the case was called on, and Mr. Hon. Lockwood, who was particularly anxious not to be deprived of the pleasure of seeing Mr. Dickens examine Mr. Pickwick, addressed a note to Mr. Justice Hawkins, asking him to adjourn the case, and the learned judge, entering into the spirit of the request, at once granted it. When Mr. Dickens was able to attend and called Mr. Pickwick to the witness stand, he was delighted with the coincidence. "I do not know, gentlemen," observed Mr. Dickens to the jury, "whether Mr. Pickwick will appear in his real name. The eagerly-looked-for witness proved to be one of the thinnest men ever stepped into the witness-box."

A Match For a Matchmaker.
The story is told by Allen Ayresworth, the British dramatist, of how a well-known peer who was the prey of match-making mammae for a long time and who was imprudent enough to show more than ordinary attention escaped responsibility. One day the mother of the young lady in question, thinking she had a trump to play, met his lordship and observed:

"People are talking a good deal about your attention to my daughter and are asking when your engagement is to be announced. What can I say?" "I authorize you to say, madam," replied his lordship, "that I asked you for my daughter's hand and that you refused it!"—O'Connor's Weekly.

Russia.
Russia took its denomination from the Rossi, or Russian, a people of the south of Russia, who possessed themselves of the country in the declining days of the Greek empire. Being the predominant inhabitants, they imposed their name on all the rest.

A Le Roi Mine Romance.

In 1892 Maurice Yensil, a merchant of Moscow, Idaho, sold a suit of clothes for $800.00, writes Harold Sand in "Romances of the West" in the February Canadian Magazine.

Of course there is a story in that transaction, and a wonderful story it is, nothing less than the romance of Roseland and its mines. Yensil didn't get his $800.00 down on the nail. It was five years before he received the final payment on that suit of "hand-me-downs."

Truth to tell, Yensil did not expect to get a cent for the clothes. One day an acquaintance had known in various mining camps of the West wandered into his store in Moscow dressed in his best and his worst. In other words the man's clothes were much the worse for wear, but they were all he had.

"Just come down from Roseland, broke," he said to his friend, the merchant. "I've got nothing except these 2,000 shares of Le Roi gold mine. Give me a suit of clothes and take me to a meal and they're yours."

Yensil did so, and threw the certificate for the mining stock into the back of his safe. He was out a suit of clothes and "four-bits"; that was the way.

By 1897 he had received in dividends and from the sale of the stock the sum of $50,000. The great Le Roi mine, after nearly breaking the hearts of those who stood so splendidly by it in the days of adversity, had first developed into the most prominent property in British Columbia, and then had been bought by the British company headed by the late Whitaker Wright, of somewhat painful memory.

When the Americans who held the mine disposed of it to Wright for about $4,000,000, Yensil cashed in for that suit of clothes.

Ragman Will.
Last autumn a Toronto lady got a taste of real Russian Jew rapartee. One morning a strange dog drifted into her back yard, and, stretching himself under the shade of a fruit tree, died. The problem of how to dispose of the beast was worrying her.

"Any rags?" he called in his Yiddish dialect.

"No," said the lady.

"Any bones or bottles?" he persisted.

"No; go away," said the lady tartly. "Any old boots?" he went on.

"No, please go away," said the lady. Then a thought flashed upon her. Perhaps he could use the dead dog in his business. Perhaps the hide would be worth his taking. So she said:

"Do you want a dog?"

"Yah!" cried the man, jumping off the wagon; "where is it?"

She took him around to the back of the house and showed him the welcome guest. When he found that the animal was dead, he flew into a spluttering rage, and he raced back to his wagon he blazed at the lady:

"Don't you want it? Don't you like it? Don't you want it to eat?"

With this crushing reply, which would be a most savage and sordid insult among his own people, he drove blissing away.

"Oh, O'm hard up yet; but O have a fine job in Honolulu, and fare paid O to-morrow."

"Sure, man, you'll never be able to work there. The temperature is a hundred in the shade!"

Pat had endured too much cheerfully to be discouraged.

"Well," he replied hopefully, "O'll not be worrukin' in the shade all the time."

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
CURED CHAS. BELL OF RHEUMATISM AND HIS WIFE OF INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS—Mrs. Bell's Statement.

North Range, Digby Co., N.S. (Special)—That Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidney ills of men and women alike is shown in the cases of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bell of this place.

A short time ago Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Mr. Bell of Rheumatism from which he had suffered for ten years. This led Mrs. Bell to try them for inflammation of the Kidneys and she was cured.

"I was troubled with inflammation of the Kidneys for twenty-four years. Some few weeks ago I got worse, and was laid up for a long time. When I was able to be up again the doctor told me I must on no account do any work. I suffered from Dronny and my foot would swell so I could not wear my shoes."

"My husband benefited so much from taking Dodd's Kidney Pills I decided to give them a trial, and when I took only three, I was well and can wear my shoes and do nearly all my own housework. I cannot say too much for Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Dodd's Kidney Pills make weak Kidneys strong and sick Kidneys well.

A Little Cold.
He caught a little cold—That was all. So the neighbors sadly said, As they gathered round his bed, When they heard that he was dead. He caught a little cold—That was all. —(Puck).

Neglect of a cough or a cold often leads to serious trouble. To break up a cold in twenty-four hours and cure any cough that is curable, mix two ounces of Glycerine, a half ounce of Vinegar of Emetics, and eight ounces of pure Whiskey. Take a teaspoonful every four hours. You can buy these at any good drug store and easily mix them in a large bottle.

Frequently
An old colored man, who could neither read nor write, and who had been found by his master to be deficient in his market book accounts, blamed the butcher with tampering with his books. The gentleman of the house remonstrated by saying:

"But, Tom, figures don't lie."

"No," answered the old man, "but liars do figger."

Indigestion Cured

This disease from which so many suffer gives the average physician a great deal of trouble. The best medical men have endorsed PSYCHINE, and recommended it in scores of the most obstinate cases. It has never failed in a single instance to give prompt relief. When directions have been followed, a few doses will remove that tightness and weight on the stomach. Taken regularly it positively cures General Distress, Flatulency, Nervousness, Coated Tongue, Heart Burn and Palpitation. If you have never used PSYCHINE, don't hesitate a moment longer. Try PSYCHINE to-day.

PROOF
Mr. Arthur Teinless, 38 London Street, Toronto, says: "For six or seven years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia. Too much acidity of the stomach, the doctors said, originated the trouble. I tried scores of remedies without avail. Eventually I used PSYCHINE and this brought immediate relief and cure."

NO HOME SHOULD BE WITHOUT PSYCHINE
It prevents the children taking cold, wards off that terrible malady, La Grippe, and completely fortifies them against disease. It should always be used for colds, influenza, loss of appetite, bronchitis and weak lungs.

For sale by all druggists and dealers, 50 cents and $1.00.
